

TUBULAR DESIGN (from page 77 of the Handbook for Flower Shows) – A creative design having dominant cylindrical forms throughout, composed of any material. Plant material and other (optional) components complete the design.

Here are some examples of tubular designs.

